Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance and dedication; and,

Whereas, Alexia Sack began her employment with the state of South Dakota on August 1, 1970, in Drivers License Issuance. She spent a total of 14 years in the Department of Public Safety before transferring to the Department of Social Services to process direct vouchers and employee travel reimbursements; and,

Whereas, Alexia was a dedicated employee who processed an estimated 126,000 vouchers; the majority of those being employee travel vouchers during her tenure with the Department of Social Services; and,

Whereas, Alexia will retire from the Department of Social Services after 30 years of service to the state of South Dakota on October 6, 2006, which will allow her to enjoy more time with Frank, her husband of 40 years; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper to honor this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of her retirement:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 6, 2006, as in South Dakota, and I join with her colleagues, family and friends in wishing her a happy and healthy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-fifth Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Six.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
